Andy,

Hi! I was so glad to get your message. We are indeed following the same famil. Anton and catherin also had Kebi(she must have died at a very young age, as my grandfather, George Justice Knab, never mentioned her. The whole family was in the tailoring business. George J wa married twice. His first wife died(I believe her name was Loretta), and his second wife- my grandmother- was Camille Heidrich(Weaver). Her first husband was a physician, who died of some form of pneumonia. My mother, Camille Catherine Knab married Albert M Roebuck(yes, that Roebuck). Who were Anton's parents? I surely do thank you!

Pat

Dear Andy,

Thank you so much for the info you sent. My mother got a great kick out of reading about her "Uncle Lou". As a child, she was friends with Claudia, who had to have been born c 1916-19.

What I know about my grandfather, George Justice Knab is that he was also married once before he married my grandmother, Camille Magdalene Heidrich(Weaver- I believe I told you that her first hubby was from the famed Weaver family from Gettysburg. Her first hubby was a doctor, from a family of docs. One of whom mapped the human skeletal system- See the book, Debris of War, about the aftermath of that battle. It has info about the Weaver family in it).

As to George J., I think his first wife's name might have been Anna. I know that he had a daughter from that marriage named Loretta, who died at about 20. My grandmother, Camille Mag. left a bible that has entries going back to 1857 by her mother.. George J. was born August 8, 1865 and married my grandmother in 1914. My mom, who was always considered the "whoops" of the family, because they thought her folks were past family rearing, was born in 1919. I am a boomer-12-11-46. What can I give you that might help?
